In this workshop learn to;

- ❖ Identify patterns of thinking and communication that typically lead to disconnection
- ❖ Express yourself honestly and authentically, and be truly heard
- ❖ Hear others with empathy and openness, without being triggered
- ❖ Connect to and value your needs, and the needs of others, equally
- ❖ Make clear, doable requests that move toward meeting your needs

"...when people learn to communicate effectively with each other, their lives and their relationships can be truly transformed."
